
Isabelle HA-EAV

Born in Paris, Isabelle Ha Eav is an artist of Sino-Hispanic origin.

She is a graduate of the Ecole Nationale Supérieure de la Photographie in Arles. She currently lives in Marseille.

Mixing photographs, sculptures and experiences of the photographic medium, Isabelle Ha Eav's work questions the interactions between the body and spaces, whether it is a living space, a space of transition, or a non-place. In a dialectic between the visible and the non-visible, the image dialogues with its materiality through different experiences of the photographic medium.

His work was recently exhibited at the Yangon Photo Festival 2020, the Tainan International Foto Festival 2019, and the Rencontres de la Jeune Photographie Internationale 2018.

He was also recently selected for the Human Photographic Prize 2020, the Voies Off Prize, the QPN Prize and the Contemporary Talents Prize of the François Schneider Foundation.

She will soon be doing an artistic residency at the Camille Claudel Museum.
