Having received a diploma in 2014, specialising in photography, at the Superior School of Art and Design in Marseille, I then worked with Jasper White in London and led the «Eiffel Tower» project, before entering the ENSP in 2015, graduated with a Master degree in 2018 with special mention from the Jury.

From 2016 to 2018, I won the prize for «1st photo edition» organised by Tribew and Fisheye with my series Traversée (Crossing). I was also selected by Leica to cover the first week of Rencontres d'Arles, and to exhibit my work daily in the «Leica Room». I was also involved with the «coups de cœur» («favourites») of the ANI at the «Visa for image» festival in Perpignan.

My photographs play with different levels of representation of the body, the representation of the self and the artificiality that sometimes accompanies it. The colour and motifs serve as tools to better portray the construction of these complex identities

Since 2019, represented by the Swiss Gallery «l'Audacieuse», I continue my personal artistic projects in France and abroad while pursuing to work as a freelance photographer.
